

THE PEOPLE MATTER

THE WORK MATTERS

The Saskatchewan Association of Rehabilitation Centres

The Saskatchewan Association of Rehabilitation Centres (SARC) is a not-for-profit provincial association that represents community-based organizations providing services to thousands of persons with disabilities.

SARC Members support individuals with disabilities through many services:

- Developmental Activity: pre-vocational and social skills
- Life Skills: cooking, cleaning, handling money, self-esteem and relationships
- Work Skills: in-house work experience programs
- Residential Services: provide support to help residents with disabilities live in their own home.

Our Vision:

Persons with disabilities enjoying full citizenship.

www.sarcsarcan.ca

- Supported Employment: support to prepare for, obtain and maintain paid employment
- Recycling Programs: paper, cardboard and beverage containers

SARCAN Recycling

SARCAN Recycling, a division of SARC, believes in the "Three Es", as it strives to provide employment for persons with disabilities, protect the environment and contribute to the economic development of our province.

SARCAN Recycling benefits communities:

- SARCAN has over 70 depots in 62 communities and provides a comprehensive provincial collection, processing, transportation and marketing system to recycle most ready-to-serve beverage containers
- In 2003-2004, SARCAN recycled more than 256 million containers, reducing Saskatchewan's waste by more than 14,000 tonnes
- SARCAN employs approximately 480 people; the majority are persons with disabilities or persons who previously received Social Assistance
- SARCAN pays competitive wages, significantly above the minimum wage, and provides excellent group benefits and pension plans
- SARCAN is always looking for new recycling initiatives and opportunities

For more information on SARC and our Members, contact our office:

Saskatchewan Association of Rehabilitation Centres
111 Cardinal Crescent, Saskatoon, SK S7L 6H5
Phone (306) 933-0616

www.sarcsarcan.ca

